

How to fix 'Norton not Responding' issue?

Posted by ContactAntivirus - 2019/09/03 05:29

Although Norton has always maintained its position in the market as one of the best security software available. But obviously, nothing could be flawless, and there are times when the software does not respond. You can fix this problem by following some necessary steps provided below:

- You will have to close all the programs and then restart your system
 - You must download Norton remove and reinstall tool and install the same in your system by checking whether it is compatible with the system requirements
 - Once installed, run the software on your system to remove all the problems at once
- If you follow these steps accurately, your issue would be resolved. If it persists, you can get in touch with phone number Norton to avail assistance from the experts.

=====