Exciting is the feeling when you have a bunch of fiery players around you in the CoD Warzone. Even the tiniest of twists can make a huge difference and turn the situation around. Paradoxically, the nerves of steel kind of people, too, sweat their blood out in the last few minutes. It does thrill you to bits, doesn't it? Yet, some unprivileged participants fail to experience the moment- thanks to much-hated Memory Error 13-71. Both the Warzone players and Modern Warfare aspirants have got up in arms because of the error. Still, the makers don't explain it very well, and that's where confusion steps in.
