

How to fix Roadrunner Email Error 530?

Posted by jessicaalba - 2019/08/16 03:20

Roadrunner email error 530 occurs when there is an issue with your Simple Mail Transfer Protocol (SMTP) settings. Here's a look at the steps you can follow to check the mail server settings on your Roadrunner account so that you can fix Error 530:

- Open the 'Tools' section and select your Roadrunner email account.
- Uncheck the option that says 'Don't host email account'.
- Go to 'Properties' and check the 'Outgoing Mail Server' settings.
- Tick mark the box the reads "My server requires authentication."

If you find that Roadrunner Email Error 530 persists even after you followed the given steps, you can call the Roadrunner Customer Support Phone Number and ask for additional assistance to implement a more advanced solution.

Read More: Bellsouth Customer Care Phone Number | Windstream Customer Service Phone Number

=====

Re:How to fix Roadrunner Email Error 530?

Posted by AdrianG001 - 2019/12/10 10:03

Methods to Fix Roadrunner Email Error Code 530-

You have to click on "Tool" button that is located in the header of window screen.
Select, "Accounts" button.

Click on "Mail" tab that will be visible in the Internet accounts window menu.
Then, select "Don Host Email Account" Option.

Click on the "properties" button to open the properties dialogue box.
Above procedure, you will observe a button that appears such as outgoing mail server heading.

After it, you can navigate to confirm, "my server needs authentication" box
Click on "ok" option.

Use web-based email services that will assist you to get the email within time.
Use of various email client.

Thus just by following all these steps, you can fix this error 530 easily.

Regards,
Adrian
System Admin
Apps4Rent | CloudDesktopOnline | O365CloudExperts

=====