Select a user you would like to share your screen with.

Select an area.

Specify an area you would like to share with the user. This could be a window, desktop or just one application.

Instantly your friend immediately to be able to see your screen.