This article provides general information for the information you set up. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us.

When you first register on Kraftwurx, we will ask you some basic information, including your home country or region. This helps us show you the most relevant items on our website and improves our delivery time. This information does not limit your options because every product on Kraftwurx is still visible to you regardless of your location.

Note: There are a few countries you can't select because of trading embargoes. For more information, see the Kraftwurx policy on embargoed goods and prohibited countries.

Changing Your Country or Region After You Register

You can choose a new home country or region at any time by updating your registration information:

1.

Go to your profile page. You will need to sign in to see this page.

2.

Once there, look on the right side for an area titled, About Me.

3.

Click the Pencil icon in the header to edit your profile.

4.

Review your changes. Click the Submit button if they are correct.

If you are a seller and change your country or region, you will still be transacted by Kraftwurx in the currency of the country or region you originally chose. However, you may change your billing currency by editing your profile.

Note: You may change your billing currency whenever you wish.

What to Do if You are in the Military

If you are in the military and have an APO/FPO address, you can choose APO/FPO as your country when you register. Choose this as your country no matter where in the world you currently live.
